

Care of Creation meeting minutes
May 19, 2015

Present- Dawn Bolstad, Kelsy Boyd, Wes Licht, Barbara Voelker
Regrets- Diane Wells

Food Pantry Garden- We have about half of the garden planted. Dawn will plant tomatoes tomorrow after chance of frost. Plant the rest of seeds and plants next Tuesday, May 25. Dawn will not be able to be there. Plan to start at 8 am. Dawn will open the garage and bring the pepper and basil plants.

Wes, Ginny and Dawn W spent an hour last Monday planting at Crystal's garden. There are just a few more items to be planted next week.

Email send out to community gardeners to remind those who have not paid to please pay their plot fees and other updates. (rototiller, rain barrels, hose)

Send email to gardeners about buying bales of straw at $5 each, contact Wes at 422-3682 or 838-8178.

Milkweed Seed- where are we planting

We will be planting the seeds on the east end of the old west plot.

Communion Wafers- Next date is Friday, June 12. We have enough wafers left over that we can use them instead of making wafers.

Canoe Trip- June 27 Saturday- Breakfast at 8am in FLC, Canoe trip start around 9:30 am at put in on Williams Drive in Stoughton near the Dam and La Follette Park. Take out in Stoughton—by the water utility building/Luke Stoughton building. (idea-that we have non participation people pick us up at Stoughton to transport us back to cars.) Will need to get canoes at put in site and canoe rack at take out site.

Breakfast-

Dawn- coffee and egg bake sweet Barb- egg bake- sweet Ginny- fruit

Wes- donuts/coffee cake and juice

Kelsy- egg bake with meat x2 Diane-yogurt and granola

Will have RSVP to--- Dawn by Monday, June 22 Remember to ask if have own canoe.

Send email to Chris Landerud to let him know any updates – Ask him to give us an estimate by next meeting of students that are planning on coming. Ask him if he has any concerns or questions for us.

Article for news you can use-- Dawn- remember for the article to ask if have own canoe or kayak.

Next meeting June 16th at 7pm